Distinguished Honors

A CELEBRATION OF ARTISTS IN HUMAN SERVICE

Doctorates To Be Conferred At Commencement Exercises, June 3, 1994

The Columbia College Chicago Commencements each year honor outstanding individuals in the arts, education, politics and public information who have engaged their great talents in important human service and whose life work and example embody the college's ideal and spirit.

Some of these have leading prominence, some ennobled by courageous labor in unpopular causes would not be awarded the usual recognitions, and some are at only the beginning time of their great promise.

MYRLIE EVERS-WILLIAMS

A Champion of Justice

An Honorary Degree: Doctor of Humane Letters

In a sea of turbulent injustices and inequality, Myrlie Evers-Williams has earned her prominence as a beacon of hope. In June, 1963 when her husband, Medgar Evers, was assassinated, she vowed to bring his murderer to justice. Three decades later she succeeded when that killer was convicted of murder and sentenced to life in prison. This was a victory not only for civil rights, not only for women, not only for minorities, but for all those who "hunger and thirst for justice's sake." While this uncommonly stalwart woman worked tirelessly for rectitude she earned a college degree, and wrote a memorable tome, For Us, The Living, a history of Medgar Evers and the civil right struggle. She was a founder of the National Women's Political Caucus, served as an executive in two major American corporations, and has been the recipient of awards including those from the United States Congress, the State of California, and the NAACP.

For your courage, your determination, your leadership, and your diligent pursuit of decency and human rights for all people, we offer our warmest thanks as we confer upon you the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, Honoris Causa.

Presented by Dr. Jean Harvey Lightfoot, Dean of Students, Columbia College Chicago

REVEREND JOHN T. RICHARDSON, C.M.

A Chicago Leader in Higher Education

An Honorary Degree: Doctor of Humane Letters

Since The Reverend John T. Richardson became President in 1981, DePaul University has added the School for New Learning, the Theater School, and a Doctorate of Philosophy. Under his leadership, enrollment increased by twenty-five percentum partly through the second largest Master of Business Administration program in the United States. Under his leadership, this institution has become an intellectual and social landmark demonstrating a reaffirmed commitment to Chicago through a series of resourceful programs which have enhanced the quality of scholarship in inner-city schools. Father Richardson is also clearly a believer in the Latin Maxim "Mens Sana in Corpore Sano" given DePaul's basketball prowess in recent years.

Father John Richardson, you have served well your God, your Church, your Community, your students, and your City. For your erudite leadership in higher education and your continuous authentic commitment to our great City, we award you the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, Honoris Causa.

Presented by John B. Duff, President, Columbia College Chicago

DR. RITA SIMO, DMA
Musician, Teacher, Social Reformer
An Honorary Degree: Doctor of Arts

Born in the Dominican Republic, Rita Simo studied at the Julliard School of Music and earned a Doctorate of Musical Arts at Boston University. As a musician, Dr. Simo excelled as a recitalist playing both solo concerts and with symphony orchestras. In 1976, she realized a dream by beginning a free music school for the poor. Today, the People's Music School of Chicago, in the Uptown neighborhood, has nineteen teachers and 200 students a semester. In seventeen years more than three thousand students have received training at the school.

Your work has brought harmony to a world of dissonance and discord, a sforzando of joyous satisfaction from a population which otherwise would never have had this experience. Dr. Rita Simo, for having the courage to dream and the determination to compose this symphony of personal rapture, we proudly award you the degree of Doctor of Arts, Honoris Causa.

Presented by Nicholas Rabkin, Senior Program Officer, John D. & Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation

DR. JOHN HOPE FRANKLIN, Ph.D.
A Scholar for Our Generation
An Honorary Degree: Doctor of Letters

Professor John Hope Franklin's eleven books on race, history, and the South have had a dramatic effect on the study of the American past, sold over two million copies and have been translated into four languages. Among his professorial appointments, he has served on the faculty of Fisk University, North Carolina Central University, the University of Chicago, and Duke University where he is presently Professor Emeritus of History. His colleagues in the profession of History have elected him President of the American Historical Association, the Organization of American Historians and the Southern Historical Association.

Dr. Franklin, your fertile mind, and diligent scholarship, have blossomed into profound contributions to the understanding of American history. For this and your wealth of civic activism, we delight in presenting you the Degree of Doctor of Letters, Honoris Causa.

Presented by Lerone Bennett Jr., Secretary Columbia College Chicago, Board of Trustees.

The President's Medal
For Distinguished Service To Columbia College

FRED FINE

Fred Fine has served Columbia College and the larger Chicago arts community with consummate dedication and skill. As president of Triangle Theatrical Productions in the 1970's, he was one of the city's leading theatrical presenters. In 1977, he founded at Columbia the graduate program in Arts, Entertainment and Media Management. In 1983, Mayor Harold Washington appointed him the city's first Commissioner of Cultural Affairs. Today, he continues to serve the College and the Arts as a consultant in development and public affairs.

For a lifetime of passionate and selfless leadership in arts advocacy and arts education exemplified at Columbia College by founding of the graduate program in Arts Management.

Presented by Joan W. Harris, President, Harris Foundation

*Honorary Doctorates in Arts, Science, Letters, Music and Humane Letters

From Stephen Vincent Benét
INVOCATION: JOHN BROWN'S BODY

American muse, whose strong and diverse heart
So many men have tried to understand
But only made it smaller with their art,
Because you are as various as your land,

As mountainous-deep, as flowered with blue rivers,
Thirsty with deserts, buried under snows,
As native, too, as the sea-voyaged rose.

You are the buffalo-ghost, the broncho-ghost
with dollar-silver in your saddle-horn,
The cowboys riding in from Painted Post,
The Indian arrow in the Indian corn,

And you are the clipped velvet of the lawns
Where Shropshire grows from Massachusetts sods,
The grey Maine rocks—and the war-painted dawns
That break above the Garden of the Gods.

The prairie-schooners crawling toward the ore
And the cheap car, parked by the station door.

Where the skyscrapers lift their foggy plumes
Of stranded smoke out of a stony mouth
You are that high stone its arrogant fumes,
And you are ruined gardens in the South

And bleak New England farms, so winter-white
Even their roofs look lonely, and the deep
The middle grainland where the wind of night
Is like all blind earth sighing in her sleep.

They tried to fit you with an English song
And clip your speech into the english tale.
But, even from the first, the words went wrong,
The catbird pecked away the nightingale.

The homesick men begot high-cheekboned things
Whose wit was whittled with different sound
And Thames and all the rivers of the kings
Ran into Mississippi and were drowned.

Stepchild of every exile from content
And all the disavouched, hard-bitten pack
Shipped overseas to steal a continent
With neither shirts nor honor to their back.

Pimping grandee and rump-faced regicide,
Apple-cheeked youngers from a windmill-square,
Puritans stubborn as the nails of Pride,
Rakes from Versailles and thieves from County Clare,

The black-robed priests who broke their hearts in vain
To make you God and France or God and Spain.

These were your lovers in your buckskin-youth.
And each one married with a dream so proud
He never knew it could not be the truth
And that he coupled with a girl of cloud.

And now to see you is more difficult yet
Except as an immensity of wheel
Made up of wheels, oiled with inhuman sweat
And glittering with the heat of ladled steel.

All these you are, and each is partly you,
And none is false, and none is wholly true.

Receive them all-and should you choose to touch them
With one slant ray of quick, american light,
Even the dust will have no power to smutch them,
Even the worst will glitter in the night.
